denotes lines that are not available for best-price online shopping. Please don't ask us to do so. Call us and we'll discuss things with you. WE WILL NOT UNDERCUT ANOTHER DEALER IN THAT DEALER'S OWN TERRITORY, SO PLEASE DO NOT ASK US TO DO SO. THANKS!

TERRITORIAL RESTRICTIONS MAY APPLY.
PLEASE READ THIS BEFORE ORDERING. In order to ensure outstanding service and support, we prefer you always use your local dealer. Certain products we offer cannot be shipped out of our area without first obtaining permission from the distributor. If there is no retailer in your area, feel free to contact us and we will be happy to make the appropriate arrangements to supply you directly. Bottom line: We won't steal sales from another dealer. We won't poop in another guy's back yard. Period. Don't ask us to. We wouldn't like it if that dealer did it to us. Of course, there are situations which come up...if you don't like your local dealer, your local dealer doesn't offer the products we offer etc. That's fine. Just know that we take this very seriously,and will be contacting your local dealer as well as the national distributor involved to make sure things are kept clean. Thanks for your understanding. If you don't agree with this policy, too bad. My dealer friends out there are many and my enemies none. I want to keep it that way.....
